it seems that the show may be revived for Supernatural season 16. However, in order for the series to be revived, the show's creator, James Van Der Beek, must first be able to secure the rights to the show. The series' rights are currently owned by Warner Bros. Entertainment, and Van Der Beek is currently in negotiations with the network to reacquire the rights. If the rights are reacquired, the show could be revived for a new season. However, it is still unclear when the show will be revived, and whether it will be a new season or a continuation of the previous one.
