Mohamed Salah was just one of the Egyptian stars on the receiving end of the harassment as a host of green lasers were pointed in his face at various points throughout the fixture. Goalkeeper Mohammed El Shenawy was also a prime target for Senegal fans, who furiously shone their lasers when he was faced with a free-kick or for each penalty in the crucial shootout.

Hamdi Fathi's own goal after just four minutes put Senegal in front on the night and levelled the score on aggregate after Egypt had taken a one-goal lead into the second leg at the Stade Me Abdoulaye Wade in Diamniadio. The score stayed that way until after extra time, with the sides then forced into another shootout just months after experiencing the same scenario in the Africa Cup of Nations final.

Mane was Senegal's hero in Cameroon less than two months ago by striking the spot kick which gave his country their first ever continental triumph. Once again, he was on hand to net the winning penalty against Egypt and ensure he and his compatriots will travel to Qatar this winter.

Senegal were worthy victors of the second leg after dominating proceedings but the occasion was marred somewhat by the hostile atmosphere and lasers which targeted the Pharaohs. El Shenawy faced intense abuse from the stands throughout the match and was targeted with water bottles and other missiles thrown in his direction, many of which struck him.

Um jogador precisa ter um bom controle de bola, dribles e passa por uma boa sorte para marcar gols.
