Some say it's luck 5 , £ predicting corners in a football game, but we at AFootballReport find in corners very profitable markets especially in live events 5 , £ when odds go very high as the game evolves. So how do we predict corners? Of course as any other football 5 , £ prediction and corners are related to a number of pre-match and team factors. First of all we should see the 5 , £ type of game we're looking for or the type of game we want to predict. Is it a game with 5 , £ a strong favorite or just two equally strengthen teams that play. If it's a game with a strong favorite probably 5 , £ we should pay attention to the corners race predictions as strong favorites always keep the ball in possession more than 5 , £ the other teams and create more chances as they push forward almost during the whole game. Keep in mind in 5 , £ live events that if the score is in favor of the favorite team then this team would not be so 5 , £ motivated to create chances and would probably win less corners than in a draw event or from behind.Second thing we 5 , £ should use when making our corners tips is to see the teams lineups and tactic for the upcoming game. Target 5 , £ teams with more offensive tactics and teams that use wingers heavily in their attacks. For example, some good wingers for 5 , £ the home team could easily produce more than 10-20 crosses in the penalty area which very often defenders clear in 5 , £ corners.Corners in the late stage of the game are more likely to happen than in the early minutes. Usually teams 5 , £ are very careful in the opening minutes of a football game and they try to enter the game more passively 5 , £ than aggressively. As the game continues depending on whether a team is losing or winning the game is leading to 5 , £ pushing forward and sending more players to attack or defend. This leads to significantly increasing the number of corners in 5 , £ the last minutes and that is what we want when predicting corners.Spot derby games. Derby games are always poor in 5 , £ goals, but very r
